Exposure

Ceres is proud to offer a series of one week exhibitions for artists not affiliated with our gallery. The shows titled Exposure will permit artists to hang their own work and participate in a Chelsea exhibition providing a venue as a "test of the waters" to young artists, under recognized artists, and artists of various backgrounds.

December 1 – 29, 2015

Women Gazing Inward - Women's Caucus for Art, New York Chapter

All women have stories to tell. Female perspectives are often attuned to social and cultural influences. The work in this group exhibition asks the questions, "to what extent is our perception informed by gender?" and "can the concept of 'inwardness' relate to our ancestry as women?"

January 5 – 30, 2016

American Society of Contemporary Artists Members Exhibition

Established in 1917 as The Brooklyn Society of Artists, A.S.C.A. continues to be a vibrant and thriving organization of men and women artists exhibiting together. Ceres is proud to have them mount this excellent exhibition in our gallery space.
